

1. Examine the validity of the theories put forward to explain the formation of the East African rift valley.
2. Examine the relationship between the nature of material ejected and the resultant land forms in East Africa.
3. Examine the influence of intrusive vulcanicity on the development of relief landforms in East Africa.
4. Account for the growth and distribution of Montane/ Alpine vegetation in East Africa.
5. Account for the growth and distribution of Mangrove vegetation in East Africa.
6. To what extent is relief or topography responsible for the development of soil catena in East Africa?
7. Account for the formation of intrazonal soils.